

SHARE

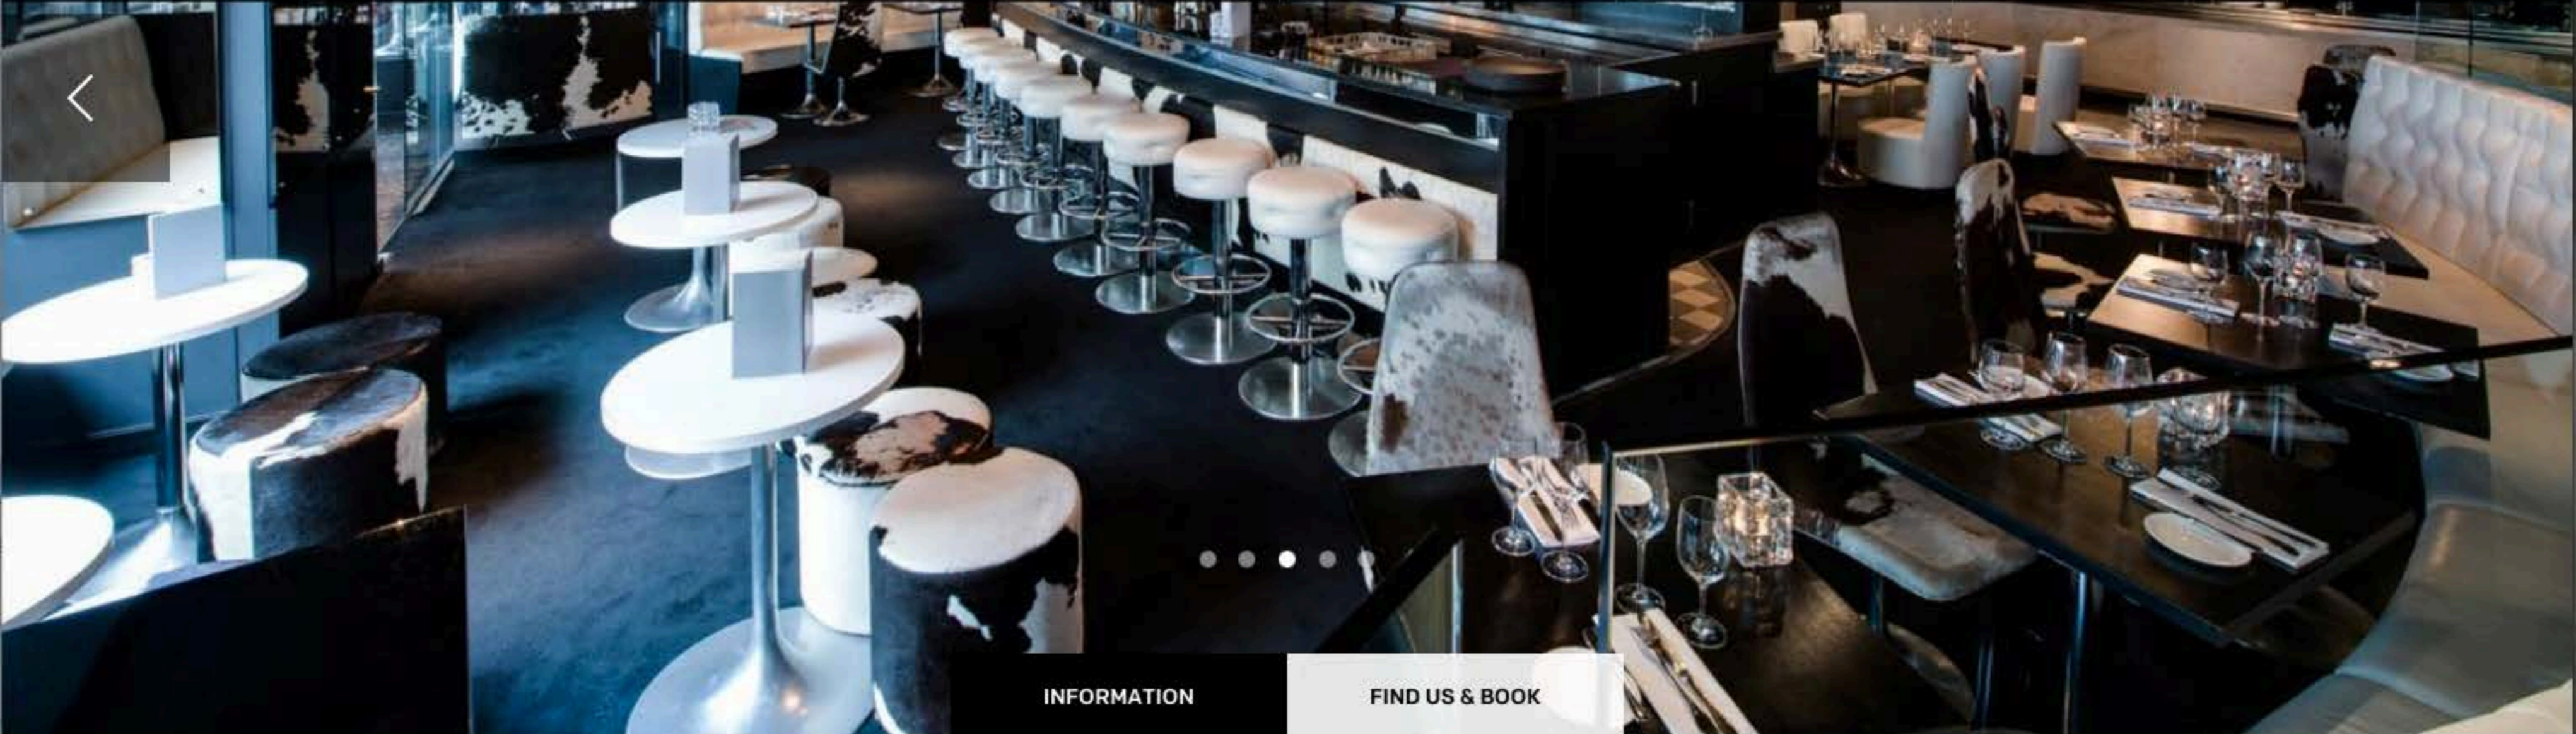

A heady fusion of South American and European influences, Buenos Aires is the sexy, all-consuming capital of a country that otherwise identifies most strongly with its countryside.

The same melting pot of French, Italian, Spanish and British cultures that gave birth to the Argentine tango has shaped the exhilarating metropolis of Buenos Aires over the past century.

Built with a sprawling variety of architecture, Buenos Aires boasts majestic avenidas, soaring skyscrapers, Art Nouveau pavilions, lush parks and stylish streets full of restaurants, cafes and bars. Its inhabitants are invariably well dressed, and keep late hours. No one eats before 11pm, and nobody goes out before midnight. This is a city that never sleeps.

‘The same melting pot of cultures that gave birth to the tango has, over the years, shaped the cosmopolitan city of Buenos Aires.’

As Argentines love to look good, it’s no surprise that their capital is awash with places to shop. Bustling markets, boutique-lined streets and large shopping malls are everywhere, selling anything from trinkets to luxury chinchilla bedspreads – with plenty of fashionable clothing and leather goods in between.

INFORMATION

FIND US & BOOK

Commanding spectacular views of the River Thames, Gaucho Canary Wharf brings a continental feel to London's financial centre.

From its superb location on the banks of the river, Gaucho Canary Wharf welcomes diners for impressive business lunches and stylish evenings. Watch the world go by from the magnificent terrace, where guests are treated to relaxed alfresco dining and unbeatable sunsets.

Authentic Argentine cooking is done with flair from the open kitchen. When the weekend arrives, a glamorous crowd makes the most of the restaurant's spectacular bar: sipping cocktails in the seductive lounge.

SOCIALADDRESS

Gaucho Canary,
29 Westferry Circus,
London,
E14 8RR

TELEPHONE

020 7987 9494

OPENING

Monday - Sunday: 12:00 - 23:00

DIRECTIONS

 Canary Wharf Station

 Google Maps

 Citymapper

Wine Tastings (UP TO 14 PERSONS) FROM £145

We're keen to enthuse with anyone who's interested in learning about the exciting world of wine. With this in mind, we've created a series of tasting experiences for those who wish to entertain, learn or simply indulge.

Our events are led by our expert sommelier, who will guide you through a carefully curated selection of Argentine wines. We also offer bespoke experiences, should you desire something different to what's listed below.

Each package is priced per event, and is suitable for up to 14 people

ABCS OF WINE TASTING £150.00

A first foray to the world of wine, this class will introduce you to the basics of understanding both reds and whites. Learn key wine tasting techniques, what the information on the label means, and the differences between old world and new world wines. You'll discover, and taste, some of the greatest wine varieties Argentina has to offer.

All the wines in this class are from our Seleccion G collection, which we create in partnership with our winemakers in Argentina.

Seleccion G Torrontés

Seleccion G Sauvignon Blanc

Seleccion G Tempranillo

Seleccion G Bonarda

Vina Patricia Malbec

ARGENTINA: NORTH TO SOUTH £290.00

Explore the full diversity of Argentina's wine-making region – an area stretching the same distance as from London to southern Italy – in this tasting experience.

Under the guidance of one of our experts, you'll be introduced to red and white wines from vineyards covering the entire length of the Argentine Andes.

El Porvenir de Cafayate 'Probeta' – Salta

La Guarda 'El Gaurdado' Syrah - San Juan

Tinto Negro Malbec - Uco Valley, Mendoza

Emma Zuccardi Bonarda - Eastern Mendoza

Learn from our experts

Perusing a menu at Gaucho tells you one thing for certain: we're incredibly passionate about Argentine food and wine.

BOOK A CLASS

SHARE

The wide, open spaces of the famous Pampas surrounding Buenos Aires provide the stunning backdrop to the legend of the gaucho.

A cultural icon, the status of the gaucho evolved over hundreds of years from displaced outlaw to defender of freedom. Now a symbol of bravery, honour and independence, the gaucho is an embodiment of national pride. In fact, a gauchada means a good deed or an act of heroism, courage or heartfelt generosity.

This romantic image of the gaucho was immortalised in José Hernandez's epic poem Martín Fierro, which just about every Argentine knows by heart. A touchstone of national identity, the poem tells the story of the gaucho's importance in shaping Argentina's history.

‘His hope is his courage; his defence is his caution; his horse is his salvation; and he spends the sleepless night with no more protection than the sky and no other friend than his blade.’

José Hernandez

INFORMATION

FIND US & BOOK

Spectacular views are the order of the day at Gaucho Tower Bridge, where old meets new on the South Bank skyline.

Enviably situated on edge of the Thames, this restaurant is dominated by head-turning vistas of the iconic Tower Bridge and contemporary City Hall. By day, you can enjoy an understated business lunch at a booth bathed in natural light. And once the sun goes down, More London's glowing fountains – and the city horizon – provide a sparkling backdrop to your evening dining experience.

Alongside two floors of restaurant space, Gaucho Tower Bridge features an intimate lounge bar for pre- or post-dinner cocktails, and a private dining room for meetings and exclusive celebrations.

SOCIAL

ADDRESS

Gaucho Tower Bridge,
2 More London Riverside,
London,
SE1 2AP

TELEPHONE

020 7407 5222

OPENING

Monday – Saturday: 12:00 – 23:00
Sunday: 12:00 – 22:30

DIRECTIONS

 London Bridge Station

 Google Maps

 Citymapper